1. [] By way of followup to a contact which Mr. Jack Norpel, Senate Internal Security Subcommittee staff, made with the Agency over the weekend, I called Norpel and then met with him and obtained information which he had obtained from a sensitive source regarding a matter of some sensitivity to the Agency. This information was given to [] in Security, who is handling the problem. Subsequently, I called Norpel and thanked him for contacting us. I said the information he provided from his source corroborated information which we had received. While we had no interest in talking with his source, we would be interested in certain details if this information should come to his attention.
